PROFILE

Hardworking and reliable warehouse-ready professional with over two years of experience in fast-paced London food service environments, including high-volume street food and takeaway settings. Skilled in stock handling, order accuracy, manual handling and strict health & safety compliance, with a proven ability to perform quickly and correctly under pressure — core strengths for picking, packing and order fulfilment roles.

KEY SKILLS

- Stock Replenishment & Inventory Rotation
- Order Picking, Packing & Assembly
- Manual Handling & Heavy Lifting
- Health & Safety / Food Hygiene Compliance
- High-Volume, Fast-Paced Environments
- POS Systems & Cash Handling
- Teamwork & Shift Reliability
- Accuracy Under Time Pressure
- Customer Service

WHY I'M A STRONG FIT FOR WAREHOUSE ROLES

- High-volume, fast-paced environment: serving 100+ customers daily has built the speed and stamina needed to hit picking and packing targets.
- Stock handling: restocking and rotating supplies in a busy kitchen translates directly to inventory replenishment and stockroom organisation.
- Manual handling: daily lifting and moving of stock and equipment has built fitness and safe lifting habits for warehouse floor work.
- Health & safety discipline: strict food hygiene compliance shows I can follow rigorous H&S procedures.
- Order accuracy under pressure: assembling customer orders quickly and correctly mirrors the accuracy needed for order fulfilment.
- Team reliability: proven dependability across long shifts, including evenings and weekends.
