

Emily Chichi CV

37 Wulfstan Street, London, W12 0AA

Phone: 07475520431 | Email: emi.chi1@outlook.com

Cover letter

Dear Hiring Manager,

As a dedicated and energetic retail professional, I take pride in creating memorable shopping experiences for every customer. With hands-on experience at Nike and Tommy Hilfiger, I have developed strong sales skills, brand awareness, and the ability to connect with diverse customers in fast-paced, high-end environments. My background in both retail and hospitality has strengthened my adaptability, communication, and teamwork, allowing me to thrive in any store environment. I have strong upselling ability because I focus on understanding customer needs and using my product knowledge to offer genuine value. I consistently look for ways to enhance the customer's experience with complementary products or premium options. My goal is to increase average transaction value and units per sale while maintaining excellent customer satisfaction. I am now seeking an opportunity where I can contribute enthusiasm, professionalism, and strong customer engagement to a respected team.

Thank you
Emily Chichi

Key Skills

- Notable customer service and communication skills – fostering longterm customer loyalty ensuring a rapport has been built and the personalized experience is had as customers remember how they were treated more than what they bought.
- Strong ability to upsell and meet sales targets – I am able to identify customers needs, recommending well suited products due to strong product knowledge. Instead of pushing for a more expensive item I would explain how to upgrade or added product improves their experience and its benefits.
- Strong sales and KPI awareness in a fast-paced environment - By understanding customer needs and tailoring my approach, I can increase conversion rates, boost average transaction values, and deliver great customer experiences.
- Fast learner with excellent product knowledge retention - which allows me to quickly adapt to new products, promotions, and sales systems. I take the initiative to learn about product features, benefits, and brand values so I can confidently support customers and make tailored recommendations.
- Professional and approachable attitude - My experience working with global brands like Nike and Tommy Hilfiger has helped me develop effective communication skills and the ability to adapt to different customer needs and expectations. I am confident engaging with a wide range of customers, from casual shoppers to premium brand clients, ensuring everyone receives the same general level of service and attention.
- Confident in till operations, stock management, and visual merchandising - With over two years of retail experience, I am confident in all key store operations, including till use, stock management, and visual merchandising. I am skilled in handling transactions accurately and efficiently while supporting a friendly and professional approach with customers. I have hands-on experience in managing stock, organising deliveries, and keeping displays aligned with brand standards to drive sales.
- Works effectively both independently and as part of a team - I am self-motivated and able to take initiative when working alone, ensuring tasks are completed efficiently and to a high standard. At Tommy Hilfiger and Nike, I developed strong teamwork skills through daily collaboration and shared goals, including team incentives and bonus schemes. Working toward these collective targets taught me the importance of communication, support, and consistency to achieve strong sales results and keep a positive store environment.
- Adaptable to fast-paced, high-volume retail environments - Having worked through major shopping periods such as Black Friday, Boxing Day, and seasonal sales, I am experienced in managing large customer flows while maintaining excellent service. I stay calm and organised during busy times, focusing on efficiency, teamwork, and keeping a positive attitude to ensure customers still receive friendly and attentive service.

• Effective communication skills - I have strong communication skills and the ability to connect with customers of all ages. Having often been described as mature for my age having been in high-end retail from 17, I take pride in creating a comfortable and positive shopping experience for everyone. I make an effort to build genuine relationships, not just with the main buyer, but also with others such as their children. To ensure every customer feels included and valued. I focus on making interactions friendly and natural, rather than pushy, so customers enjoy their experience and are more likely to return.

Experience

Feb 2025 – Jul 2025

Seasonal Athlete / Sales Associate | Nike Unite Croydon, London

Working at Nike Croydon, a global retail sports brand, was my first role in a fast-paced outlet environment and gave me valuable experience in a high-energy, customer-focused setting. I developed strong all-round retail skills by working across tills, fitting rooms, front of house, and back of house operations. Although different from high-end fashion, this role helped me strengthen my adaptability, product knowledge, and ability to connect with a wide range of customers.

I was proud to be voted MVP of the Month twice, recognised for my exceptional customer service, positive feedback from customers, and consistent performance. This experience taught me the importance of teamwork, efficiency, and maintaining high standards while representing a world-leading brand with professionalism and enthusiasm.

Skills

- Delivered exceptional, personalised customer service using Nike's service model.
- Kept deep product knowledge across footwear, apparel, and technology.
- Aided with point-of-sale operations, deliveries, and store organisation.
- Built positive relationships with customers of all ages, offering tailored advice.
- Demonstrated adaptability and professionalism in fast-paced retail environments.
- Consistently received positive customer feedback for attentiveness and product expertise alongside for working very well with customers kids e.g. - to measure foot size.

Experience

Aug 2023 – Present

Sales Associate | Tommy Hilfiger, White City Westfield

Working at Tommy Hilfiger, a leading name in high-end fashion retail, has given me valuable insight into both the fast-paced and quieter sides of the industry. While not every day is busy, I have learned the importance of staying proactive, sustaining energy, and continuing to drive sales even on slower days, ensuring every customer still receives attentive, personalised service. In high-end retail, daily visits and checks are carried out, meaning product knowledge, personal presentation, and uniform standards must always be up to date, as they make a key difference to the overall brand experience.

Over two years with the brand, I have developed Advanced product expertise and the ability to confidently engage with a diverse range of customers from around the world, offering genuine advice and styling recommendations. I have worked across all areas of the store, including tills, shop floor, back of house, overnight visual merchandising support, and welcoming customers at the entrance while promoting collections and in-store offers. This role has strengthened my professionalism, adaptability, and understanding of what it takes to deliver exceptional service in a premium retail environment.

Skills

- Provided premium service to customers, focusing on product recommendations and brand experience.
- Managed till operations and ensured accurate cash and card transactions & returns.
- Organized stock deliveries, labelling, and RFID tagging for smooth operations.
- Upsold key products and informed customers about promotions to drive sales, 10% off sign up including the benefits that come along with the signup.
- Built customer loyalty through personalised interactions and attentive service.

Experience

Jun 2022 – Feb 2023

Front of House / Bartender / Receptionist | Pelican State, Bloomsbury

Working at Pelican State, a growing seafood restaurant in London, I focused on giving every customer a personalised experience. I recommended and made drinks based on their tastes, personality, and style, and checked in to make sure they were happy with their service. I had also assisted the reception team by managing calls, bookings, and customer enquiries efficiently. The role taught me to work efficiently under pressure while keeping a welcoming and attentive approach.

Skills

- Greeted and served guests in a busy hospitality environment, maintaining a professional and friendly attitude.
- Handled cash transactions, managed reservations, and coordinated seating.
- Memorised food and drink menus, providing recommendations to enhance customer satisfaction.
- Worked efficiently under pressure, ensuring tables and areas remained clean and organised.
- Developed strong multitasking and communication skills transferable to retail service.

Education

William Ellis Sixth Form (2022–2024)

A-Level Physical Education – Grade B

BTEC Applied Science – Merit/ Merit

St Marylebone CE School (2017–2022)

GCSEs including English (6), Maths (6), Dance (7), Geography (6), PE (6)